DECLINES TO CONFESS

Mrs. Dominis Interviewed by Captain Parker.

Says She Knew Nothing About the Rebellion—Lays the Blame to Nowlin.

The authorities granted Senior Captain Parker an interview with Mrs. Liliuokalani Dominis yesterday, prior to the opening of the morning session of the Courtmartial, at the request of that official. An order had been made that besides Paul Neumann, her counsel, and Chas. B. Wilson, her agent, none should be allowed to see the ex-Queen. The object of Captain Parker's visit was to gain from her a confession of her complicity and how far she had been connected with the late unsuccessful attempt to overthrow the Republic of Hawaii.

Captain Parker arrived at the Executive building at 8 o'clock and was admitted to the room allotted to the prisoner, where she is attended by Mrs. C. B. Wilson. The captain stated the object of his mission was to have a conference with her. Mrs. Dominis said she was quite willing to hear him and asked if it might not be proper that her companion retire during the interview. Captain Parker replied that it was unnecessary and Mrs. Wilson could remain. The captain then stated that he required from her a full confession of her knowledge and what part she took in the late rebellion. He endeavored to impress upon her the necessity of such a proceeding, as it affected the liberty of a great number of her former subjects. These people were in prison and an avowal from her might gain for them their immediate release. She would only have to appear before the Military Commission and plead guilty to the charge preferred against her and the prison doors would be thrown open, and those loyal to her would go home as free people. The senior captain labored with the ex-royal lady for one hour without success.

Mrs. Dominis replied that she was not guilty of treason. She pleaded innocence of the whole proceedings and laid the entire blame for the uprising upon Samuel Nowlin. It was he who had planned the whole affair and had done so without consulting her in any way whatever.

During the interview Mrs. Dominis became quite excited and told Captain Parker that the authorities had informed her that no one but Paul Neumann and C. B. Wilson was allowed to speak to her on these matters.

The senior captain retired at 9 o'clock and Mrs. Dominis made preparations for appearing before the Military Commission to answer to a charge of misprision of treason.

During the afternoon Captain Parker had an interview with C. B. Wilson. Mr. Wilson agreed with the captain and said he would see Mr. Neumann and would endeavor to obtain a complete statement from Mrs. Dominis. The captain was quite confident yesterday evening that he would gain his point ultimately.

The exposure to all sorts and conditions of weather that a lumberman is called upon to endure in the camps often produces severe colds which if not promptly checked, result in congestion or pneumonia. Mr. J. O. Daveport, ex-manager of the Fort Bragg Redwood Co., an immense institution at Fort Bragg, Cal., says they sell large quantities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the company's store and that he has himself used this remedy for a severe cold and obtained immediate relief. This medicine prevents any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia and insures a prompt recovery. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

What Shall We Drink?

When the rays of Old Sol are boiling down at a ninety degree rate, the air like the breath of a furnace and everything hot, dry and dusty, the natural desire of the average human is to drink. But, what to drink? There's the question.

The serious effect of an over-indulgence in ice water is well known. The thousand and one cheap gassy beverages are known to be more or less injurious to the health, while the mineral waters of known purity and healthfulness are a luxury beyond the reach of but few. What shall we drink?

A beverage to meet the requirements, must, first of all, be absolutely pure and non-alcoholic. It should possess a medicinal element to counteract the effects of the heat and keep the blood pure and the stomach healthful. In order to be palatable and refreshing, it should be sparkling and effervescent. Last but not least, it must be economical and within the reach of all. A beverage that fully meets all of the above requirements and one that is entitled to more than passing mention is HIRES' ROOT BEER, manufactured by the CHAS. E. HIRES & Co., of Philadelphia, U. S. A. This preparation has been analyzed by the highest authorities and pronounced by them to be free from any deleterious substance and absolutely non-alcoholic; while all physicians acknowledge its health giving qualities. It has a delicious, appetizing flavor, is full of snap, sparkle and effervescence, and is without a peer as a refreshment.

A package from your storekeeper will make five gallons of this great temperance drink. Truly it answers the question—What shall we drink? There are many substitutes and imitations of HIRES' ROOT BEER offered for sale which should be carefully avoided.

Testimonials:

"We have used your Root Beer for over a year and find it delicious and healthful. We would not like to be without it a single day. We find it is helping all of us.—MRS. F. H. CLARK, 735 Chester St., Oakland, Cal., U. S. A."

"We have used over one hundred bottles of your Root Beer, drinking it winter and summer. My brother and myself are total abstainers, drinking nothing but Hires' Root Beer.—MICHAEL KELLY, 16 Water St., Waltham, Mass., U. S. A."
